Guests have direct access to 230 metres of fine sandy beach with an extensive range of beach and watersport activities including windsurfing, kayaking, boating and fishing.

The Lost World theme includes an extensive water park with swimming pools and a children's pool, lazy river, waterslides, waterfalls and other aquatic activities.

Children can enjoy the Kids' Club and daily activity programme, while teenage guests have a separate E-Zone games and meeting area.

The SPA Cenvaree oceanfront village offers a luxurious venue for traditional aromatherapy and therapeutic massages and treatments together with the resort's pedicure and manicure salon, and yoga and meditation sala.

Dining provides something for all tastes and all moods. At Ginger & Lime, located in the resort gardens, the cuisine is Japanese, Thai, Chinese and Vietnamese, prepared in oceanside kitchens.

Modern Italian cuisine, with the emphasis on seafood, is served at Acqua, while Flames is a beachfront BBQ and grill, open in the evenings and perfect for families and groups.

Oasis offers dining throughout the day, with grand buffets for breakfast, lunch and dinner, and themed evenings.

For kicking back and relaxing, or organising a party, Zulu is a lively bar with its own DJ and a suite of private karaoke rooms.

Add to all this the Vistas lounge and 24-hour room service, and a refreshing drink, snack or full meal is always immediately available.
