OF THE FAR EAST

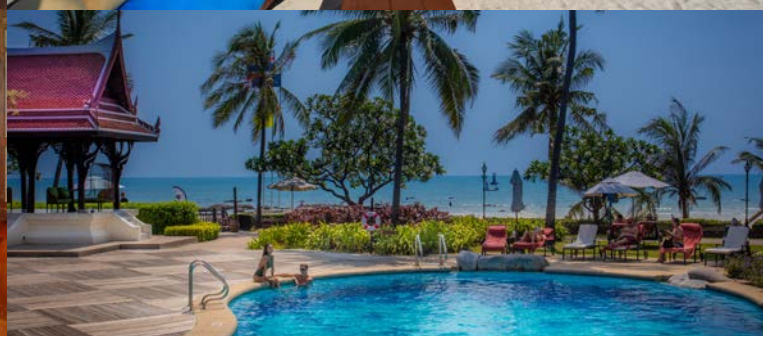

Formerly the Hua Hin Railway Hotel, one of the classic hotels of the East, the Centara Grand Beach Resort & Villas Hua Hin was constructed in 1923 and has fully retained its air of old-world elegance. In 1922, Thailand's King Rama VI was the catalyst for creating a more comfortable and convenient holiday experience for Thai tourists and the result of his efforts was Thailand's first resort, built with resemblance to the Marukhatayawan Royal Residence in nearby Cha-am. Centara Hotels & Resorts acquired the iconic property in 1985, and with sensitivity towards its original sophistication has extended and upgraded the hotel which stands on 16 hectares of beachfront land amongst topiary gardens that are one of the greatest local landmarks.
